Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 18 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly cloudy, some patchy rain. Best weather early in east.

Today:
Most seeing a rather cloudy day with some patchy light rain or drizzle. However better fare through the morning from the Great Glen, across the North East and down through Tayside, Central, Fife, Lothian and Borders. Northwest breezes.

Tonight:
Continuing rather cloudy for most with some further patchy light rain or drizzle, but some clear spells across the far north, also developing overnight in the southwest.

Thursday:
The cloudy theme continues with some patchy rain, mainly focused across Argyll, Tayside and Central. However sunny spells mixed with a few light showers across the far north and northeast.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Only limited brighter spells Friday and a few light showers. From Friday evening and through the weekend occasional rainbands erratically crossing from south, turning heavy at times in far south.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.